INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Heaven Sent Ministries, Inc. (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Heaven Sent Ministries, Inc. as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTE A - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting and Financial Statement Presentation - The financial statements of Heaven Sent Ministries, Inc. (HSM) are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP); using the accrual basis of accounting. Under the accrual basis of accounting revenues are recorded when earned and expenses are recorded when a liability is incurred, regardless of the timing of related cash flows. Grants, when received, are recognized when grantor eligibility requirements are met.

Source of Revenue - Heaven Sent Ministries, Inc. receives the majority of its revenue through hosting of international mission trips and through donations from individuals, churches, organizations, and businesses.

Revenue income reported in the financial statements includes all unrestricted donations, mission trip revenue, or monies earned during the normal course of business.

When both restricted and unrestricted resources are available for use, it is Heaven Sent Ministries' policy to use restricted resources first, and then the unrestricted resources as needed. See Note C for information describing restricted assets.

Cash Equivalents - Heaven Sent Ministries, Inc. considers cash in checking accounts, savings, and cash on hand as cash and cash equivalents on the statement of cash flows.

Cash - Cash is on deposit with two F.D.I.C. insured institutions. During the year Heaven Sent Ministries, Inc. did not have any amounts over F.D.I.C. coverage. The cash and cash equivalents consist of the following for purpose of the cash flow statement.

Accounts Receivable - Receivables are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. Uncollectible accounts are charged directly to expense in the year they are determined to become uncollectible. The determination of uncollectability is based on historical bad debt experience and an evaluation of the periodic aging of accounts.

Leasehold Building (Princeton)- When Heaven Sent Ministries, Inc. opened in 1997 the organization was operated out of a room in the Fellowship Baptist Church (Princeton, WV). As HSM grew it became apparent that they needed more space. Per an agreement with Fellowship Baptist Church a building was constructed on property adjacent to the church with an agreement being made that if HSM ever closed or moved that the building would be transferred back to Fellowship Baptist Church. The Building is the property of HSM, however the land is owned by Fellowship Baptist Church and no lien can be made against it.

Leasehold Building (Ghana) - Heaven Sent Ministries, Inc. completed construction on a Pastors Training Center in Ghana, Africa in December 2010. Currently, Ghana has a land tenure system in place where traditional land-owning authorities (stool chiefs, clan heads and skins) hold allodial (absolute ownership) title to land on behalf of their people. Leases, rentals, and other agreements over a satisfactory period of time for economic/commercial activities are possible and involve permission by the allodial titleholders to use the land. However, the land must revert to the community or the allodial titleholder at the end of the agreement.

Support Funds - Currently there are no funds that are classified as support funds.

Revenue Funds - Currently there are no formal restrictions on Revenue Funds; however donations were given for pastor and missionary support, continued development of the Pastors Training Center in Ghana, Africa, support of the Hunger Challenge program, local outreach, and to send foreign missionaries abroad to aid in meeting physical needs through evangelism and discipleship as stated in Heaven Sent Ministries mission statement.
